

how is metal art made?

The first thing you need to know is the different ways in which metal artwork can be created. There are three main ways: Metal Fabrication involves creating artwork from scratch by cutting and shaping metal pieces. This is done using various tools, including welding torches, saws and grinders.